

Modern with a contemporary feel, this piece is a good ensemble number for intermediate to advanced dancers. It plays a soloist and duet against the larger group and incorporate some basic lift work. While it has no clear narrative line, the play of dancers suggests a coming of age ritual, repeated cyclically and somberly, as a new dancer enters the fold.

The Center Holds

Modern/Contemporary for seven women

Music: Ludavico Einaudi, In A Time Lapse

Run time: 5:25 minutes